Actor Kevin Sorbo Joins Golf Legends at 3M Championship Pro Am

TEMPE, ARIZ., July 30, 2015 – Kevin Sorbo, actor, director, producer and author will be returning to his home state to tee off for charity at the 3M Championship Pro Am on July 31 - August 2 in Blaine, Minn.

Sorbo, a top-rated celebrity golfer, will be playing the high performance eco-friendly Dixon Earth golf ball and be paired with golf royalty Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Lee Trevino throughout the weekend.

The Champions Tour, originally the Senior PGA, features some of the most accomplished professional golfers in the game, with many of its members in the World Golf Hall of Fame.

"I'm looking forward to the tournament because I have known Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus for over 17 years and they have always been a class act," says Sorbo. "It's going to be a great day on the course and I will definitely bring my camera!"

The 3M Championship, an annual Champions Tour event, is hosted at TPC Twin Cities and is presented by Post-It Products. The purpose of the Pro Am event is charity, fan and partner driven.

Twin Cities holds personal significance to Sorbo, who was raised, went to high school and attended college in the area.

"I always love to go back home to the Twin Cities, I have fond memories of my youth," says Sorbo. I still have many friends from my high school and college...in fact a few of them are going to caddy for me at the 3M."

As both a competition and charity event, the 3M Championship benefits healthcare programs at Allina Health's Abbott Northwestern Hospital, United Hospital and Mercy & Unity Hospitals.

General Admission will be free for all spectators.
